l. Deliver	ed to George Murphy. Joint Committee on Atomic Emerly siall, six copie:	of the besic statement to be need to the Eirector's briefing of the Joint Committee tomorrow. I pointed out to hearphy, John Conway and James Ramey that this was the basic paper on the Director's presentation but that he would not be reading from the paper itself but instead would cover certain highlights which he thought would be of greatest interest to the Committee members. The staff members expressed some surprise that there was no information in the there is and the second of the second	that there was no information in the paper on Seviet submarines. I advised them, however, I was ours the Director would cover this in his oral statement.
